

Curriculum Resources List

National Museum of the American Indian has prepared curriculum for teachers. Lessons are located at www.nmai.si.edu/explore/foreducatorstudents/
<http://nmai.si.edu/explore/forfamilies/resources/> (look under “DIG DEEPER ON THE WEB”)
www.nmai.si.edu/environment/ - unit on Native environmental perspectives and efforts
NMAI includes a unit on American Indian Perspectives on Thanksgiving

Native Tech website includes resources mainly on Native Americans of the Eastern Woodlands (Northeast) region:
www.nativetech.org/

Lessons of Our Land: The Land Tenure Curriculum K-12

<http://www.lessonsofourland.org/> Lessons of Our Land is an interdisciplinary Indian land curriculum designed to align with existing state standards and is adaptable to include the history and culture of the region’s Indian nations.

PBS has a number of videos pertaining to Native American culture and issues. Search for “American Indian” and filter by grade and media type. <http://www.pbslearningmedia.org/>

Lewis and Clark Trail Tribal Legacy Project: <http://lc-triballegacy.org/main.php> This site explores history, culture, impact of Euro American contact, present day information and future directions of tribes along the Lewis and Clark expedition trail.

The Native Daughters Curriculum focuses on women in Indian Country – past, present and future.
<http://www.education.ne.gov/mce/Curriculum%20Guide/Native%20Daughters%20Curriculum%20Companion%20small.pdf> together with <http://cojmc.unl.edu/natedaughters/>

Four Directions Curriculum has units on California and on Natives across the US: <http://www.fourdir.com/>

Arizona State Museum: <http://www.statemuseum.arizona.edu/edu/resources/index.shtml> Some materials can be printed and used in class, some are online activities. Focus on Southwest tribes

Native American Resources – Library of Congress - <http://www.loc.gov/teachers/classroommaterials/themes/native-americans/> Resources include Primary Source Sets, Lesson Plans, Exhibitions and Presentations, Collection Connections and a “For Students” section

Teaching Native American Histories has lots of resources and lesson plans including some for K-2 teachers - <https://teachnativehistories.umass.edu/>

Honoring Tribal Legacies - Honoring Tribal Legacies is a digital collection of teaching resources for use in classrooms everywhere. On this website you will find an array of Teachings at different grade bands that honor a diverse and inclusive approach to social studies, STEM, language, and other subjects.
<https://blogs.uoregon.edu/honoringtriballegacies/>

American Indian Teaching Resources, Smithsonian Institute website - http://www.smithsonianeducation.org/educators/resource\_library/american\_indian\_resources.html

Ziibiwing Center of Anishinabe Culture and Lifeways - <http://www.sagchip.org/ziibiwing/>

---

Eric Hemenway, Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians

Carol Bacak-Egbo, Oakland University