TIPS FOR A GREAT PROPOSAL

STEP 1: KNOW YOUR AUDIENCE

All data is from 2019.
STEP 2: PICK SESSION TYPE

Presentation: A 60-minute traditional session.

Panel: A 60-minute session with a moderator and at least two panelists.

Power Session: A 30-minute session that is a short presentation over a topic, resource or tool.

Poster Session: Presenters put together a poster display and communicate their objectives. This session is 60 minutes long and typically involves 1:1 interactivity with attendees.

Workshop: Workshops take place on the Sunday morning of the conference and are two hours in length. Workshops should include in-depth learning and exploration.

Clinic: Clinics take place the Thursday before the conference begins. Clinics can be a half day or full day, but should include in-depth learning and exploration.

Off-Site Clinic: These clinics should take place at a local site, but can be a half or full day. There should be a significant rationale for holding the clinic off-site and each clinic should include in-depth learning and exploration.

Make sure the type of session you choose matches with your objectives, session strategies, etc. This will help show that you have aligned all elements of your proposal.

TIPS FOR A GREAT PROPOSAL

STEP 3: CHOOSE A PRIMARY FOCUS AND SECONDARY FOCUS

PRIMARY FOCUS AREA

- Anthropology
- Civics/Government
- Cross-Disciplinary
- Curriculum and Instruction
- Economics/Financial Literacy
- Geography
- Global Studies
- Law/Law-Related Education
- Literacy
- Psychology
- Sociology
- Technology
- U.S. History
- World History

TIP

Think about the area that makes up the majority of your session. For example, if your session is 60% demonstration of tech tools, you should select “Technology” even if the other 40% is U.S. history. For example, if your session is demonstrating questioning techniques using primary sources, you may consider selecting “Curriculum and Instruction,” rather than a specific content area.

(Select “Cross-Disciplinary” if your session crosses multiple disciplines.)

SECONDARY FOCUS AREA (IF APPLICABLE)

- Assessment
- Disciplinary Thinking
- English Language Learners/Bilingual Education
- Equity
- Human Rights/Indigenous Education
- Inquiry
- Issues-Centered Education
- Social Justice
- Student Voice

TIP

You can select up to three secondary focus areas, but only select those that are directly connected to your session.
STEP 4: FINALIZE YOUR PROPOSAL

SELECT TARGET AUDIENCE

- Early Childhood/Elementary
  - PreK–12
- Middle Level/Junior High
  - 6–12
- Secondary/High School
  - Higher Education
- Supervisor/Administrative

TIP
Be sure to select the target audience that most closely matches with your proposed session.

SESSION FORMAT

Listen and Learn: This is a more traditional session category. These sessions are predominantly one-way communication and do not involve a lot of audience participation.

Participate and Share: This format should include presentation of new information but also involve participants in some way.

Engage and Connect: This format is specifically designed to help conference attendees engage with each other.

ABSTRACT

The description should be directed toward attendees and what they will learn by attending this session. Please start with an active verb such as explore, discover, receive—and avoid beginning with “This presentation will...” Please do not copy/paste from Microsoft Word.

TIP
It is important that the abstract speak for itself. This is what attendees will see and is the only information they will have about your session.
OBJECTIVES
Clearly state your goals for this session. What do you hope to accomplish?

Create reasonable objectives for the session format you selected. Be sure to start objectives with verbs.

CONTENT/SKILLS
Describe in detail what participants will learn by attending this session. What new skills, teaching methods, content, lesson ideas, or applications of technology will they come away with?

Be sure to match the expectations of content/skills with the type of session you have selected. For example: If you are proposing to do a power session, you probably cannot accomplish multiple pieces of content or skills in just 30 minutes.

STRATEGIES
What do you plan to do in your presentation and why? Use as much space as you need to communicate your intent and the value of what you are proposing. There is no word limit.
1 How do I submit my proposal?
For NCSS and ABA: All proposals must be submitted via our online submission form at https://www.socialstudies.org/conference/proposals.
For NCGE: All proposals must be submitted via online submission at http://ncge.org/conference/submissions.

2 Do I have to be an NCSS member to present?
No, you do not. However, all presenters must register to attend the conference. A discounted registration rate is given to NCSS members who register before the advance registration period ends.

3 Is there a fee to submit a proposal?
No. However, if your proposal is accepted you must register to attend the conference.

4 Can I submit more than one proposal?
Yes. However, it is unlikely that multiple proposals will be accepted.

5 When do I need to complete my submission?
The deadline for submitting proposals is February 10, 2020.
This is a sample proposal form for viewing purposes only. All proposals must be submitted online for consideration. Mailed copies of this sample proposal will not be considered.

*Indicates a required entry.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Acknowledgment I acknowledge and understand presenters are required to register for the conference by November 27, 2020. Please share this information with any co-presenters.
