Service Learning in Peru

EF Professional Learning Tours allow you to grow personally and professionally as you collaborate with educators who share your passion for opening the world to their students. While on tour, you will explore the cultural sites with educators from across the U.S., analyzing new trends in pedagogical approaches and expanding your professional network. Pick up new techniques you can bring back to your own classroom, school, and district, and have the option to gain the professional learning credit you need to advance your career. Then, return home feeling refreshed, refocused, and ready to share your experience and learnings with your peers and students.

Travel with EF on a 10 day professional learning tour to Peru. While traveling with fellow educators from all over the United States, you will have the opportunity to participate in service learning activities. You will visit local schools while also seeing Peru's major cultural and historical sites.

Service projects provide an opportunity for you to immerse yourself in a new culture in a unique and meaningful way. Working side by side with locals, you'll gain insight into the challenges they face and build lasting solutions to help empower the community. Join our grassroots partners in a mission to alleviate poverty, build up infrastructure and educate the next generation of Peruvians.
